

SportAviation CONTENTS

Vol. 68 No. 10 | October 2019

FEATURES

46

Glittering Gold Lindys

The top tier aircraft awards given out at AirVenture 2019

By Ti Windisch

54

They Came to Play

The Kitfox and friends contingent at AirVenture Oshkosh 2019

By Budd Davisson

62

Welcome Homebuilts

The E-ABs of AirVenture 2019

72

The Great EAA Aircraft Raffle

C & D aviation presents a modern replica of the early PA-18

By Jim Busha

80

Actually Accurate

CIES sensors provide reliable fuel level readings

By Beth E. Stanton

ON THE COVER: A rare VariViggen leads a flight of Burt Rutan's designs, including a VariEze, a Long-EZ, and the unique, record-breaking Catbird.
Photo by Connor Madison

ON THIS PAGE: This aptly named Velocity looks fast even sitting still as the sun sets over the homebuilt camping area at EAA AirVenture Oshkosh 2019.
Photo by Camden Thrasher

For more on many of the topics in this issue, visit www.EAA.org/sportaviation.

To view and submit aviation events, visit www.EAA.org/calendar.

DEPARTMENTS

COMMENTARY

- 01 | Open Cockpit
Jack J. Pelton
- 06 | Letters to the Editor
- 22 | The Classic Instructor
Steve Krog
- 26 | Airworthy
Lisa Turner
- 32 | Light Flight
Dave Matheny
- 36 | Flight Test
Charlie Precourt
- 40 | Plane Talk
Lauran Paine Jr.
- 44 | Stick & Rudder
Robert N. Rossier

NEWS & INFO

- 10 | Advocacy & Safety
Governmental Issues
- 12 | Flightline
Industry News
- 16 | Innovation
Cutting Edge Developments
- 18 | Flyby
Featured Photo
- 20 | Pathways
Exploring Aviation
- 116 | FlyMart
- 117 | Classified Ads

MEMBER CENTRAL

- 87 | Member Central
- 88 | What Our Members Are Building/Restoring
- 93 | Gone West
- 94 | Members and Chapters In Action
- 98 | Volunteer Spotlight
- 120 | EAA's Attic

EXPERIMENTER

- 100 | Technically Speaking
Carol and Brian Carpenter
- 104 | Ultralight World
George Karamitis
- 108 | Shop Talk
Budd Davisson
- 114 | Hints for Homebuilders
Cutting a Hole in a Wing Panel, Stripped Screw